In an attempt to create a Christian community during Youth events, the following guidelines are to be used as an orientation for our lives together. The success and enjoyment of this experience in Christian Fellowship will largely depend upon our mutual respect to ourselves, to one another and to God.

Participants who do not abide by the following guidelines will be sent home from the event. Event Directors will notify authorities when necessary for illegal activities or when youth leave the specified boundaries.

It is the responsibility of the Congregation Pastor & Youth Events Registrar that these guidelines, policies, and expectations are understood by the community.

1) Registration for Events

- a. Late Registration Forms will not be accepted.
- b. All registration forms must be signed by congregation Pastor.
- c. All registration forms must be processed thru church office including the receipt of registration fees.
- d. Churches send one check to the Regional Office that includes fees for all event attendees.
- e. Personal checks are not accepted.

2) Arrival/Departure of Events

Arrival and Departure times are scheduled to keep disruptions from happening when youth join late or leave early. It is important that everyone honor the stated beginning and ending times in order to enable the bonding of the community, to build trust in one another, and to ensure that all youth have the opportunity to participate in the entirety of the program and curriculum.

3) Camp Staff Selection

Camp Staff, including Directors, Counselors, and Camp Nurse, are selected by the Regional Staff, not the individual Camp Directors. The Camp Staff is selected after review of all Camp Staff applications and recommendations, as well as consideration of individual camp needs, diversity of the camps, rotation of new/upcoming leaders, evaluations from previous year's camps, membership in Disciple congregations, and variety of gifts each individual offers.

4) Dress Code

Campers' dress and personal appearance or conduct shall not disrupt or distract the program. The following is a list of prohibited dress:

- a. Clothing which immodestly exposes the chest, abdomen, genital area or buttocks
- b. Clothing that does not cover the torso on the front, back, and/or sides
